Rainy Day Fund Transfer

President Kemper suggested the council transfer funds as suggested by Greg Guerrattaz. Council members agreed that $250,000 should be transferred to the Rainy Day Fund and recommended consulting with the commissioners as to the best source for funding for the Self Insurance Fund. Auditor Weston will seek advice from the commissioners and advertise the transfers for the next meeting.

TREASURER'S REPORT – Bob Plantenga

Treasurer Plantenga reported the average interest rate for April was 5.13%. Interest rates on accounts are stable from last month. He added that the total earned for the general fund interest is up, and the amount is 20% higher than a year ago. He mentioned that Benton County rates are not in; the delay will benefit the county by having one due date for property taxes.

Lafayette Venetian Blind CF-1

Mark Trowbridge from Lafayette Venetian Blind noted that business has been steady for the last several years. He noted that with the expansion to the property in 2004 the company expected to hire an additional 50 employees and after completion 186 employees were hired. He reported that business is declining slightly due to the decrease in home sales.

Rexam Pharma – Compliance with Statement of Benefits

Tammy Metzinger with Rexam Pharma and Cinda Kelly from Lafayette/West Lafayette Development Corporation presented information regarding the statement of benefits. President Kemper recapped last year's request and noted that Rexam was not in substantial compliance with statement of benefits. Council members agreed to allow Rexam another year to become compliant with the request. Ms. Metzinger noted that Rexam operates under lean manufacturing principals, which has allowed this facility to remain open. Currently, they have 44 full-time employees and 27 temporary employees. She added that in 2007 they plan to hire 4 of their temporary employees for full-time employment. They also project that the gross income will increase for 2007 to $12 - $16 million up from $9-$10 million in 2006.

OTHER BUSINESS

Judy Rhodes the West Lafayette Clerk/Treasurer inquired as to whether or not Auditor Weston would be addressing the fact that the CEDIT Homestead Credits, as advertised, are anomalous and could be adjusted more equitably. Auditor Weston advised she would be looking at that matter over the next couple of weeks as work begins for tax billing. Any new method would have to be approved by the state. Auditor Weston will communicate the timeline and requirements with council via email.

Wabash River Enhancement Corp Update – Stan Lambert

Executive Director Stan Lambert updated the council on the plans for the Wabash River Enhancement Corporation. He noted that this project is community driven with the leadership, development and fundraising efforts put forth by the community and community leaders. Mr. Lambert presented the strategic plan for the corporation and long term benefits with Purdue University as a partner. Pictures and data that include master plans for the Wabash Corridor were presented to board members.

Department of Child Services – Angela Smith Grossman

Director Angela Smith Grossman presented Practice Indicator Reports for Tippecanoe County. She mentioned that this report is a combination of all the agencies in the region, with Tippecanoe County representing the largest part. Director Grossman noted that budget is on track and DCS does not anticipate borrowing any money for the current year. Currently, the number of children taken in for substantiated investigations is at the lowest point for the year. In closing, she noted that the Department of Child Services administration is providing more employees to decrease the workload and also new reports and statistics to benefit DCS programs statewide.

Youth Services Update – Rebecca Humphrey

Director Humphrey provided statistics on Department of Corrections and placements from Tippecanoe County. Her studies included trends for males and females in Fiscal Year 2002 – 2006 to include several surrounding counties. She included site sizes, price and construction estimates. Director Humphrey anticipates the center built on a 25 to 40 acre parcel with an estimated cost of approximately $22 million for construction. She continues to research alternative funding sources for the project in an attempt to recoup a portion of the cost for the county. Forums are scheduled in the next month in an attempt to get community feedback from parents of youth in the system.

COMMISSIONERS FYI

Commissioner Benson noted that Laurie Wilson from Voter's Registration has filled the Grant Coordinator position. Congressman Buyer arranged a visit for INDOT Commissioner Browning to visit Tippecanoe County to discuss the Hoosier Heartland Project and US 231 project. Mock Election is May 8th and Commissioner Benson encouraged everyone to vote. Department Head Luncheon will be held on May 9th in the Tippecanoe Room.

PUBLIC COMMENT

None

Council President Kemper reminded members that the next meeting will be held on May 15, 2007 due to the mock election on May 8th, 2007.

- Councilmember Byers moved to adjourn.
